New York Anti-Saloon League Tells of Getting $25,000 Gift Back In 1914

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—William H. Anderson, nationally known dry leader, admitted today he had concealed from the directors of the New York Anti-Saloon League the fact that a mysterious stranger had given him $25,000 while he was head of the Anti-Saloon League in Baltimore, and given the impression he had obtained money by mortgaging his home and borrowing on his life insurance. He also rejected an offer to clear himself of all charges by revealing the name of the generous friend.

The admission came in the midst of a grilling cross-examination by Assistant District Attorney Ferdinand Pecora, who is prosecuting the dry leader on charges of forgery in the handling of league accounts.

Anderson claimed he had spent $24,700 of personal funds in 1913 and 1914 and at the meeting of the league directors here in March, 1915, he put in a claim for reimbursement. Anderson had previously testified that the money put into the league publicity came from a man named "John T. King," described as a New York realty promoter, whom he had not seen since 1914. The money, he said, was a gift and he "performed no service for it."

Pecora said that a year ago he offered to clear Anderson from all charges if he would name the man who had given him the money and that Anderson refused the offer.

Anderson said in 1912 or 1913 the period of the gifts from King, he had dined with him a number of times at the Renert and Caswell Hotels in Baltimore, during which he also received sums of $1,000 and $2,000 at a time, the total gifts from King being $25,000.

Anderson said the only other persons who knew of his acquaintance with King was Henry Mann, a publicity agent, supposed to have had an office in New York.

He had not seen Mann since 1914 Anderson said.

He also told Pecora he had made no effort to find King because "I didn't think it would do any good."

34 GRADUATED FROM ELYRIA HIGH

Western Reserve Uni- versity President Would Classify and In- struct Children Accord- ing to Their Ability and Inclinations

Asserting that the biggest problem that confronts every parent and teacher is to train the child according to his or her natural ability, and not to any set form of education that puts them all in the same class regardless of ability, Dr. Robert C. Vinson, president of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, addressed the graduates of the mid-year class of the high school at the school auditorium, last evening.

The house was filled with the friends of the class and patrons of the schools, and the exercises were exceptionally pleasing. The high school orchestra under the leadership of Miss Lorena Tomson, supervisor of music, was exceptionally good, as well as the selection by the Girls' Glee Club. Rev. William Flammer offered the invocation and the speaker was introduced by Supt. F. M. Shelton.

Dr. Vinson, spoke first of his recent coming to Ohio after serving seven or eight years at the head of Texas university. He found a vast difference in serving as the head of a privately conducted university and a State controlled university where politics were played and interfered with the best interest of the school.

Praises School System

He wondered if the American people really appreciated their educational system, and the problems that confronted those in charge from day to day. He stated that the one idea that had engaged the attention of not only the people but the law makers and politicians too was the education, compulsory if necessary of the boys and girls. The speaker discussed this at some length and then made the assertion that without doubt the United States had the best educational system of any country in the world. He believed that as we lift the level of general intelligence so much reader are the people to meet and solve the great civic questions as they arise.

When the country gets that form of citizenship as a result of the education and training given the students, then we shall have the nearest to an ideal government. Lack of means did not bar a boy or girl from securing an education. He said that in the University of Texas last year out of 5,000 students, 54 per cent were getting an education through their own efforts.

One great problem of the teacher was the varied personnel of the students. It was as varied as our national life, and presented as many problems as there were students. The one thing to be found out was the particular niche in which each student would fit, and then train him accordingly. The child must be taught to find himself. Not all of them should be financiers. There must be those who work with their hands as well as their minds.

SEN. REED WILL ENTER DEM. CAMPAIGN

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 25.—Senator James A. Reed, Democrat of Missouri, will arrive here from Washington within 48 hours to announce formally his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for president. It was reported today by Reed's supporters.

Headquarters will be opened in St. Louis with Reed's former senatorial campaign manager, E. H. Glenn, in charge, it was said. When apprised of the reported intention of Reed, Frank Farris, Democratic state chairman, reiterated his avowal of supporting William G. McAdoo.

RAIL OFFICIAL RESIGNS

LORAIN, Jan. 25.—W. D. Holaday, general superintendent of the Lorain, Ashland & Southern Railway, has announced his resignation to take effect on February 1st. He has been in the railroad business for the past thirty-five years. His successor has not yet been named.

Another Cold Wave Lasting to Monday, Engulfs This City

COLUMBUS, Jan. 25.—Another cold wave, lasting probably until sometime Monday, was predicted by United States Weatherman Alexander here today. The mercury is expected to drop to between 10 and 14 above zero tonight and may go a few degrees lower Saturday night, he stated. This prediction involves an expected drop of at least 20 degrees within the next 24 hours. Snow flurries and a strong northwest wind are scheduled to accompany the cold wave.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—The Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin today entertained the gusty weather enroute toward Illinois and points south and east, which by way of advance courier had despatched driving snow and drops from the mild temperatures of the last few days.

Temperatures Saturday were not expected to touch the low marks of the two preceding cold waves which undermined records of a decade, but according to official forecast would be nippy enough and within halting distance of the zero mark in the Great Lakes section.

Minnesota already felt the northwestern storm, with ten below; Wisconsin was approaching the zero mark and Nebraska and Iowa were not far above. States further south ranged around 20 to 30 above, with heavy snow and the mercury falling rapidly.

PASTOR DENIED DESIRE TO TESTIFY

Husband of Broken-Up Home Scores Again Against Minister of Fashionable Baptist Church

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Blows fell thick and fast this afternoon about the head of Rev. Dr. Carl D. Chase while he was trying to disprove the charges of Mrs. Charlotte Leland, one of his congregations, that they had sinned against church and home. He wished to testify in the divorce suit of Albert Leland. Counsel for the wife objected and was sustained. Nor would the court let Mrs. Leland take the stand when counsel for the clergyman wished her to. A third blow was the court's refusal to call a woman whom the pastor charges is the real reason for Leland's desire to be free.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Albert Leland won another victory today in his fight to divorce his wife, Charlotte, and drive from the Baptist church the Rev. Dr. Carl D. Chase, with whom Mrs. Leland confessed she "had sinned four or five times."

The court ruled that May Brown, formerly Leland's secretary, whose friendship for her employer was questioned, could not be summoned as a witness, since no statutory charges had been made against the husband. Frederick A. Brown, a lawyer, acting as friend of the court, had held that Leland was enamored of Miss Brown and that she was the real foundation for his desire to divorce his wife.

It was the second victory for the husband. The first was the admission of testimony by an affidavit that Mrs. Leland was not insane and that she had no "delusions" as the pastor of the exclusive First Baptist church of Oak Park, where the Lelands worshipped, had contended.

Expectant court spectators awaited eagerly today the testimony of Mrs. Leland and her own revelation of the charges of intimacy her husband has hurled at Dr. Chase.

Despite her collapse after the long day in court yesterday when the husband, in a six-hour recital, repeated the wife's confessions, naming the pastor, Mrs. Leland insisted that she be permitted to take the stand today.

She shares, she admitted, the passionate purpose Leland voiced before he left the stand.

"I consider it my duty to my faith as a Christian and to my creed as a Baptist to drive such men as Case out of the church. He must not be given another chance to do to other men and women as he has done to me and my wife."

The plain-appearing woman, apparently the home body sort, whispered quietly "yes, that's it," as her husband made this announcement of his purpose and denunciation of the pastor.

Case himself was to follow Mrs. Leland on the stand if her recital was heard today.

LIQUOR MAKER SENT TO PEN

All Others Indicted Which Were Made Public Enter Pleas of Not Guilty

Persons indicted by the last grand jury appeared before Judge A. R. Webber this morning and made their pleas. Judge Webber took the pleas in the absence of Judge W. B. Thompson, who will try the cases.

The grand jury must have made a lot of mistakes, as every one indicted except one plead not guilty to the charges against them. Judging by past experience, many of them will have a change of heart before their cases are called for trial.

Alice Hall, Wellington woman charged with first degree murder, plead not guilty. She has been out on $10,000 bail, and the prosecutor stated that while it was against his inclination, he would consent to her giving a $15,000 bond. This was acceptable and was furnished by her relatives.

Lewis Cowles, indicted for the same offense plead not guilty, and was sent back to jail.

Charles Wright, Lorain, first degree murder plead not guilty, as did also Bendella Cruz, charged with second degree murder.

Charles Wright, charged with manslaughter, plead not guilty, and was released on a $1,000 bond.

The following entered their pleas:

George Bartow, possession of liquor, third offense, two counts, not guilty. Bond $4,000.

George and Mary Echko, possession of liquor, third offense. He was released under $2,500 bond, and she gave a $2,000 bond.

Stanley Jezorski, possession of liquor, third offense. Not guilty.

George Vass, illegal possession of liquor, third offense. Not guilty.

Antone Juyawski, illegal possession of liquor, third offense, not guilty.

Libero Caruso, manufacture of liquor. Not guilty. Bond $2,500.

Frank Solchinsky, manufacturing liquor, plead guilty to the charge. He was fined $500 and costs and sent to the penitentiary for an indeterminate term at hard labor.

Walter Thomas, shooting to kill. Not guilty.

Julius Stevens and Thomas Smith, burglary and larceny. Not guilty. Bond $1,000 each.

William Smith, larceny. Not guilty. Bond $1,500.

Ernest Davidson, assault and battery. Not guilty.

Scotty Mains, assault and battery. Not guilty.

Howard Norman, burglary. Not guilty. Bond $1,000.

Chas. Brennan, larceny. Not guilty.

Kenneth Knowles and Adrian Buswell, rape. Not guilty. Bond $1,000 each.

Gotlieb Gerber, burglary and larceny. Not guilty. Bond $1,000.

Charles Williams, cutting to wound, Grace Carter. Not guilty. Bond $2,000.

Herbert Wilkinson, larceny. Not guilty.

Criminal trials will start on February 4th at which time Adrian Buswell will be placed on trial.

Judge Webber announced that he would handle equity cases and jury trials in civil cases, this term of court.

GENOA, O., Jan. 25.—Awakened by smoke in his apartment early today, Dr. W. W. Williams, dentist, jumped from a second story window without stopping to rather up his clothes. When out of the building he remembered his goldfish and rushed up the stairs and rescued them from the flames.

FALL ILL. MAY NOT BE ABLE TO TELL ABOUT LIE MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—In addition to the $100,000 in cash which he borrowed from Edward L. Doherty, multi-millionaire oil magnate, ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall also secured from Colonel J. W. Zevely, a business partner of Harry F. Sinclair, the sum of $25,000 in liberty bonds in the autumn of 1921, Zevely testified this afternoon when he appeared as a witness before the senate public lands committee in its investigation of the oil leases negotiated by Fall.

The money, Zevely declared, was given to Fall for the purpose of making a trip to Russia in the interests of the Sinclair people.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Haggard of face and obviously broken in spirit by succession of charges that have been hurled at him in the last two weeks—ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall struck back at his accusers today with what he declared to be the "true story" of the famous $100,000 loan.

Denies Charges.

"There was no connection whatever between the $100,000 loan I received from Doherty and the lease he obtained for naval reserve lands in California," Fall told International News Service.

He referred to testimony of E. L. Doherty, president of the Pan-American Petroleum Company, before the senate public lands committee investigating naval reserve leases to private interests. The oil magnate declared he loaned Fall the $100,000 on November 30, 1921, on a promissory note, and that no mention has been made since that time about payment of the loan.

"I loaned him (Fall) the money because he has been a warm personal friend of mine for thirty years and I was happy to do this favor for a friend, especially as I could easily spare the money," Doherty said.

The loan was made only shortly before Doherty got the lease for the 37,000 acres in the Elk Hills, Calif., reserve. The money was sent to Fall in Washington from New York in cash, carried in a little black satchel by Doherty's son.

"Mr. Doherty loaned me the money because of the years of unbroken friendship between us," Fall added. "Besides it was in gratitude for the many things he and his wife had done for me, and no one else, had been able to do for him in Washington during the involvement of his Mexican properties by the war in that country."

"He never gave me the money on account of any oil leases," Fall also denied flatly that he borrowed any large sums other than the $100,000 from Doherty. The impression was gained by some members of the committee from the oil man's testimony that there might have been a second $100,000, inasmuch as Doherty said "the cost of buying the Harris ranch and improvements on his own ranch exceeded $100,000." He declared Fall asserted the purpose of the loan was to purchase the headjointing ranch, not mentioning installations on the ex-secretary's own ranch which were said to have cost about $80,000.

Apologizes for Statement.

"I did not get any money from Harry F. Sinclair," Fall said. "I did not get any money from Edward L. Doherty. The one thing I regret in all this unhappy situation is that I said I did get money from McLean, and I am ready to apologize for having said it."

Senator Caraway, Democrat of Arkansas, charged that "Fall suddenly came into possession of $180,000 after the lease to Doherty and Sinclair, although it was shown he was broke and unable to pay taxes before the leases were made."

To clarify these charges, the committee summoned Fall to appear Monday.

The decision to delay Fall's appearance until next week was reached after committee members had communicated with the ex-secretary's physician.

"Fall is in no condition to testify yet," the physician said. "He needs a couple of days' rest. He is worn out and fatigued by the trip from New Orleans. Fall is a very sick man and any untoward excitement might prove disastrous to him. Sometime ago I recommended that he go to Bermuda to recuperate. I fear for his health."

Fall was under the constant care of his physician today. He was staying at the home of Col. J. W. Zevely, Sinclair's right-hand man, but the physicians expected to send him to the country or to a more scheduled part of town, to prepare for the ordeal on Monday.

Under Doctor's Care.

"My patient will appear on Monday unless he has a turn for the worse and it is necessary to send him to a hospital," the doctor said. He wants to testify and I will let him if he is able."

Zevely, who accompanied Fall from New Orleans, was called to the stand today to testify, concerning 3,500 shares of stock, worth $80,000 and $25,000 in liberty bonds loaned him without a receipt or note by Sinclair. Zevely reiterated testimony of G. D. Warburg, Sinclair's former auditor, that he used the money in purchasing a home in Long Island.

He went out of Union station by a side door, trying to avoid a host of newspaper men.

He was back amid familiar associations, familiar scenes, but the jaunty air, the erect figure, the happy smile with which he greeted friends was gone. His pale, haggard face bore mute evidence of his illness, said by his physician, who gave him a thorough examination upon his arrival, to be "serious." He leaned upon a cane, or upon an escort's arm, when he walked. He moved slowly and with apparent difficulty. Only the sparkle and fire of his deeply set eyes remained if the older days in Washington, when as senator and then secretary of the interior, he was a welcome and dominating figure in any company.

To Tell Whole Story.

"I want the people to know that there was no corruption between Ed Doherty and me in these leases," he repeated this time and time again. His voice was almost plaintive. "I don't want him crucified, he didn't do anything wrong. I'll tell the whole story on the stand Monday." His voice was a mere echo and he was affected, visibly moved, whenever he referred to Doherty.

"And is it will remove all suspicion from Al Fall. I'll go back to the directors of my company and ask them to recover the lands to the government," Doherty stated.

Sensations which have followed Zevely's testimony in the Senate chamber are not yet over. In the opinion of committee members, startling disclosures are yet in store, they predicted.

Doherty's suggestion that he would recover the oil reserve lands to the government "if a board of experts appointed by President Coolidge determined the leases were made illegally or corruptly, struck a responsive note today.

"I think the plan probably would be satisfactory," said Senator Smoot, Republican, of Utah, member of the committee. "The board could decide the appropriate action to be taken by the government and thus settle fairly any controversy."

Zevely, the government, under Doherty's plan, could regain the lands. If nothing is found wrong the board could report that.

"I want a little more time to think it over," declared Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Montana. "It seems to have some merit."

Senator Adams, Democrat, of Colorado, praised Doherty's spirit and willingness.

Meanwhile, Democratic leader today were busy working on a compromise resolution to present to the senate Monday, directing President Coolidge to institute proceedings to recover Teapot Dome.

5 Operations—15 years suffering with constipation—Kellogg's Bran restores health.

Mr. Lansing's case is typical of thousands of others. He found permanent relief from constipation in Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. Read what he says:

Dear Sir:

I have been afflicted with constipation for the past 15 years, and during that time I have been in four different hospitals and submitted to five different operations that were the result of constipation. I was getting so bad that every meal I ate soured on my stomach. Two months ago I was advised to eat your Kellogg's Bran. I tried it, as I was trying everything I could hear of. From that day on I have never taken a purge. My stomach does not sour any more and my bowels move regularly morning and evening. Yours sincerely, Fran. Lansing, 1306 Jetties Ave., Marion, Ind.

For permanent relief, eat Kellogg's Bran regularly. Two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the delicious nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran—so different from ordinary bran, which are unpalatable. Eat Kellogg's Bran with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes given on the package. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumpled, is served by leading hotels and clubs in individual packages. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

LORAIN ATLAS CAGERS WANT ELYRIA GAMES

The Atlas Cagers of Lorain, with a record of 23 out of 25 games the past two seasons, are out with a challenge to any team in Elyria for games to be played on opponents' floors. The Columbia Steels and Elyria Y take notice. Write Alex Mollison, Jr., 1840 East 30th St., South Lorain.

ELYRIA ENTERS INTER-CITY PIN MEET

Many Expect to Roll at Sandusky March 22 to April 5; Fremont and Port Clinton After 1925 Tournament

SANDUSKY, O., Jan. 24.—The official call for the fifteenth annual tournament of the Inter-City Bowling Association to be held here March 22 to April 5 inclusive, is being prepared by President A. A. Wintersteller and Secretary George Schiller of this city to be issued Feb. 1.

According to both Wintersteller and Schiller, the meet promises to be the biggest and best ever held.

"Mansfield, Tiffin, Fremont, Findlay, Norwalk, Elyria, Lorain, Bellevue, Port Clinton and in fact all of the cities entitled to participation, promise to send unusually large delegations," said Secretary Schiller, discussing the prospects.

The home bowlers do not intend to let any city beat Sandusky in the matter of entries and accordingly are busy organizing teams to represent the various hotels, manufacturing and fraternal and other organizations with a view to securing a record Sandusky entry.

Inasmuch as this year's tournament is to be held here Sandusky bowlers will be barred from all voice when it comes to selecting the scene of next year's tournament.

Lorain, Mansfield and Elyria are cities that have had tournaments in the past and accordingly the 1925 meet will likely go to a smaller place than has ever thus far been picked. Fremont and Port Clinton are understood to be candidates.

The officers of the association say that the prize list for this year's tournament will unquestionably be the most attractive in the history of the association.

Sandusky Elks will be represented by four five-men teams in the National Elks' bowling tournament to be held at Lima. These teams, to be designated as No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3, will compete Feb. 11 and 12, having received their authorization this week.

If a suggestion returned a few days ago by the Elks is accepted by the Farrell-Cheeks, Sandusky will have but one representative basketball team next season. Heretofore it has had several, of which the Elks and Farrell-Cheeks have been first and foremost.

"What we ought to do is get together and have one good team instead of two only fair teams," said Fred Block, manager of the Elks.

Between the Elks and the Farrell-Cheeks we have the material for a first-class aggregation. I for one am in favor of a merger."

Manager C. H. Wringates of the Farrell-Cheeks has the proposal under consideration.

Sandusky Knights of Columbus will be represented by four quintets in the tournament of the Ohio Knights of Columbus Bowling Association to be held in Columbus, Feb. 9 to March 2, inclusive.

For some years the Sandusky lodge men have been cutting quite a figure in K. of C. bowling affairs, Sandusky five-man organizations having carried off the honors on two occasions.

JUNIOR AND GRAMMAR CAGE LEAGUE BATTLES SCHEDULED SATURDAY

Several extra good games are on tap this coming Saturday afternoon when the Junior Church and Grammar School basketball leagues play their regular weekly scheduled games on the Y. M. C. A. gym floor.

Several upsets have already showed up and there are good possibilities that there will be many more before the season closes in March.

Following are the games scheduled for this Saturday afternoon starting at 1:30 p. m.

Junior Church League
Methodist vs. Church of Christ.
Episcopal vs. Second Congregational.

Grammar School League
Franklin vs. Gates.
Ely vs. Hamilton.
McKinley vs. Jefferson.

HIGH COACHERS PLAY SANDUSKY TEAM SATURDAY

Sandusky high school's crack faculty five will face a severe test Saturday evening when the all-star Little Big Seven coaches face them in a court battle at the Bay City.

Coach A. W. Collins, Lorain mentor, will be one of the members' coaches outfit which boasts of all ex-collegians of much note in their day. Van Ness, Norwalk, coach and a member of the Bellevue American Legion will be one of the other luminaries in the coaches lineup.

Other members of the outfit will be coaches Peabody of Elyria, West of Bellevue, Stahel of Norwalk, Atkinson of Oberlin and Taylor of Fremont.

The game will be played on the Sandusky high school floor.

SPORT FLASHES

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Jan. 25.—Assertions sometime ago that Shelby, Mont., scene of the Dempsey-Gibbons Fourth of July championship bout last year, was dead financially as well as pugilistically, were refuted today when Bruce McNamara, secretary of the Shelby Chamber of Commerce, wired Tex Rickard a bid for another championship bout. McNamara offered Rickard a guarantee of $500,000 to stage the Dempsey-Gibbons fight in Shelby, July 4, next.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—A blue sky and warm sun greeted Gene Sarazen and Arthur Havers, the professional golf champions of America and Great Britain, when they drove from the first tee today in their 72 hole international match.

Basketball

ALLIANCE, Jan. 25.—Only the local high school basketball team remains undefeated in northeastern Ohio high school court circles, Canton McKinley suffering through an upset to the dope bucket when St. Ignatius of Cleveland took the long end of a 23-16 score, Akron West being routed in its first loss to the tune of 39 to 7 by Hamilton high, and Youngstown Raven failing to show their defense of teamwork in its defeat by Alliance by 19 to 8.

CANTON, Jan. 25.—Because of the slump that his team has been wallowing in, Coach Smith has been sending his McKinley high cagers through grilling workouts and the form shown by the team has been much better, as a result. Improved driving power on the offense, and a stronger defense, have been exhibited.

AKRON, Jan. 25.—Central high's basketball team, which has been left in the lurch so far this season, is facing still greater difficulties with the graduation in January of Fontaine, Baysinger and Baldwin, all first-string men. Coach Bluff is trying to develop his combination with Tidyman and Williams as forwards, Berry at center, and Frye and Bridges, guards.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 25.—East high, intercollegiate court champions last year, was unceremoniously shoved from its place in the undefeated column by Hughes high, now the only undefeated high team in the city. East so far this season has failed to show the form that brought home the bacon last season.

ARE THEY DIFFERENT FROM THEIR FOREFATHERS?

There is a great deal of "tommy-rot" written and spoken concerning the soldiers' adjusted compensation. The insinuation is constantly being made that the soldiers who favor it are attempting to "drive a bargain" for patriotic endeavor which they rendered on behalf of their government and those who favor it are condemned by this class very severely. But let us look at the facts as they are.

The ex-soldiers do not regret what they did, or the sacrifices they made on behalf of their country. They do not regret it whether they get additional pay for that period or whether they do not. They are glad that they rendered the service, and the insinuation that some try to make that they are now attempting to "drive a bargain for overtime," as though it were "overtime," is a slander upon the service men.

Manufacturers had partly finished goods needed such as ammunition, etc., for the war, when the Armistice was signed. These manufacturers could not collect from the government for that unfinished work, but they sought Congress and obtained adjusted compensation for that material and the amount ran into vast sums of money. We never heard any criticism of this. We are not criticising it, but suppose folks told the manufacturers that they should be willing to sacrifice—that that much was in the interest of patriotism. But we know of instances where great sums were obtained for unfinished material and some of the material was used along other lines so that there was not very great loss.

We do not believe that a man's patriotism is to be questioned simply because he insists on getting somewhere near justice, if possible, in the way of financial return. We could not do this without reflecting upon the character of hundreds of thousands of veterans of the Civil War—upon General Lafayette, who received the sum of $200,000.00 as a bonus from the American government in 1824, and no question was raised as to his devotion to the cause of liberty. We cannot charge a lack of patriotism to the men asking for adjusted compensation when we realize that General Ulysses S. Grant, in 1850, appealed for a bonus to the government, on the ground that he had served in the war with Mexico and he received the bounty land as a reward for such service.

Again, the great commoner, Abraham Lincoln, appealed on the 21st day of August, 1855, for a bonus, because of service rendered in the Black Hawk War of only forty days. He had already received land as a bonus for such service and he adds in his declaration to the commissioner of pensions that "he makes this declaration for the purpose of obtaining the additional bounty land to which he may be entitled under the act approved the third day of March, 1855."

Not only did Grant and Lincoln request and obtain such pension, but General Robert E. Lee, six years before the outbreak of the Civil War, appealed for a bonus on the ground that he had fought in the Mexican War. It was then called the "bounty."

We do not believe that Abraham Lincoln or General Ulysses S. Grant or General Robert E. Lee for a moment sold their patriotism or their love of country. They grasped their sword or their musket and fought for what they believed to be their country's good and the country rewarded them for it. In the present case, men were drafted and served for $30.00 a month and property was not drafted or commandeered, and a slight readjustment has been requested, and we do not believe such a request is out of harmony with the patriotism of the country, for a moment.

NOT THE PURPOSE OF THE LEAGUE

It has been rather amusing to those who understand the Anti-Saloon League's character thoroughly to note how some of the "wets" have imagined that the Anti-Saloon League would be used in a personal and partisan attachment to any man's campaign. It never has been in any state in the Union and never will be and it makes this very clear in its recent utterance in a current editorial in the "American Issue." It has frequently tried to have one candidate represent "drys" so as to unite the forces in the campaign, but it has never attempted to further the interests of one individual as against another individual in political life; or if it has, it has been done by one man or men who have mis-conceived and prostituted the methods of the League.

Turn about is fair play. If the preachers don't stop scrapping—Dempsey will probably start preaching.

Now they're making a big fuss about the Mexican army trying to pass through the United States.

Seems as though "Cal" don't care. BUT the Senators seem to think it's good press agent stuff to say so.

If I was Oregon or Huera or whoever is at the head of the Mexican army I'd put the army on a Ford some night and speed across.

You could put the entire navy in a row boat and not be crowded for room.

When Villa used to strut his stuff they had to set a new army every week—he didn't like armies.

Don't take much to start a Mexican army—a couple of yards of gold braid and two guitars is about all the weapons they need.

They start in as privates and when they get to be Major Generals they go to Lorain and get a job in the steel plant.

Congress should worry about "Teapot dome" and let the Mex Army tend to their garlie.

Now that they've issued their "They shall not pass" ruling—La whole army's trying to throw a seven.

They only wanted to transport a couple of regiments I am told what harm they could do—only three generals, twenty-five captains and two buck privates.

About the only time they use the army down there is election day—not to count the votes but to shoot the defeated candidates.

TIMELY VIEWS ON WORLD TOPICS

"There is no reason why the subject of taxation cannot be approached from a fairly non-partisan viewpoint. The outstanding feature of the Mellon plan is the Secretary's recommendation for a reduction of the high surtaxes. Similar recommendations have been made by the last two preceding Secretaries of the Treasury, both of whom held their offices under a Democratic President. There is nothing political in recommending a sound basis of taxation." So says G. B. Winston, assistant secretary of the Treasury.

"Now, taxes have a history of ultimately finding their way down to the consumer. True, in the earlier years of the imposition of a new tax the person upon whom the burden directly falls pays the tax, but he immediately casts around for means to shift this burden from his shoulders to another's, and with this shift is almost invariably added something of additional profit. I have never understood, for instance, that an excess profits tax upon a corporation influenced it to decrease its profit so as to have more left when the tax collector was through. So, high taxes have always meant a high price level, and the tax is really paid by every man, woman and child in the country, and not alone by the persons actually giving their checks to the Government.

"It is for this basic reason that the present question of tax reform is not how much each individual taxpayer reduces his direct contribution, although this, of course is a powerful influence upon the individual affected; the real problem to determine is what plan results in the least burden to the people and the most revenue to the Government.

"An economic system which permits wealth in existence to escape its share in the expense of the government, and wealth in creation to be penalized until the creative spirit is destroyed cannot be the right system for America.

"No idea has ever been presented without its being subject to attack in its details. We all know how easy it is from one's native or another to complain that one feature of a plan should be this instead of that, and how difficult it is to establish a plan as a whole.

"It is the difference between a constructive and a destructive mind. There are details in the plan which I might wish to change, there are some which you may wish to have different; but I can say to you frankly that the Treasury bill has been prepared without favor and without prejudice. It represents the experience of the United States Treasury. There is no partisanship in its make-up. You cannot succeed with a multiplicity of conflicting remedies for an intricate situation.

imperfections. We get very impatient with it, especially with Congress. But in that call on Arthur Brooks democracy functioned. It is good to live in a country where presidents do things like that.

In addition to many chances for a boy to work his way through school in America, it is interesting to know that in Harvard college alone about $150,000 in scholarships and prizes are given away every year. If you are a boy or young man, reading this, and are seized with a man's sized desire to go to college, you can go. It may mean heavy sacrifice, but a chance to be exposed to education is worth sacrifice.

When God at first made Man, Having a glass of blessings standing by— Let us (said He) pour on him all that I can.

Let the world's riches, which dispersed lie, Contract into a span.

So strength first made a way, Then beauty flow'd, then wisdom, honour, pleasure; When almost all was out, God made a stay,

Perceiving that, alone of all His treasure, Rest in the bottom lay.

For if I should (said He) Bestow this jewel also on My creature,

He would adore My gifts instead of Me, And rest in Nature, not the God, of Nature;

So both should losers be. Yet let him keep the rest, But keep them with repining restlessness;

Let him be rich and weary, that at last, By goodness lead him not, yet weariness,

May toss him to My breast. —George Herbert.

LEONID KRASSIN In the small group of men from which may step "the man of the hour" in Soviet Russia through the death of Nicolai Lenin, is Leonid Krassin.

Krassin first drew world-wide attention when as Red trade envoy to Great Britain he plied his wits against those of David Lloyd George and other British statesmen and commercial leaders and brought to a conclusion commercial negotiations which were advantageous to the Soviet government.

Krassin is a native of Siberia, and was born in 1870. Ever since his youth he has been identified with revolutionary activities and during the reign of the czar was much of the time in prison or in exile as a result of his plots against the then existing order.

The outbreak of the World war found Krassin in Petrograd as chief manager of the Russian interests of a large German engineering concern. He occupied this position until August, 1918, at which time he was elected to an official post with the Soviet government.

His connection with the Soviets began in 1917, at which time he participated in the Brest-Litovsk peace negotiations with Germany. He also took part in the drawing of the commercial treaty in the capacity of financial and economic expert.

Upon his return to Moscow he was elected president of the supreme council of national economy and of the extraordinary commission for supplying the Red Army with necessities. He became people's commissar of commerce and industry in November, 1918. On March 20, 1919, he became, in accordance with the resolution of the central executive committee of the Soviet people's commissar for means of communication.

He also served as a member of the Soviet delegation to the Genoa conference two years ago.

LORAIN COUNTY TO GET $48,000 FROM STATE FOR PAVING

The county commissioners report as a result of their trip to Columbus to secure state aid for roads in this county, they received a promise of $48,000.

It was agreed that the road leading south in Oberlin corporation should be improved, and the road in Eaton township as far as the Big Four tracks should be cared for. This road when completed will make an improved loop from Elyria through to Copola, there being a stretch of only about two miles that will be improved. All the roads having been previously cared for.

The road from Elyria to Brunswick will be cared for later, and the road west from Wellington to Brighton, about two miles, will be cared for by the next legislature.

The commissioners also called attention to the new bill passed by the State legislature appropriating $2,000 of state funds for the improvement of roads in the various townships of the state. Unfortunately the legislature neglected to make any appropriation for this fund and this money will not be available until the legislature meets again and makes the appropriation. The commissioners ask that this explanation be made, as many residents of the county districts believe the money is available now.

At the conclusion of the address Miss Georgia Yost, played Chopin's Etude on the piano, and demonstrated her ability as a coming pianist.

Supt. F. M. Shelton then presented the class of thirty-four students with their diplomas. He congratulated them on the completion of their studies, and said that as they went out into the world they had left a record behind them. He said, "I am going to ask you what is your name?" Not your given name or nickname, but the name you have made for yourself among those with whom you have been associated daily in your school life. He assured them that the impressions left on those with whom they had been from day to day, was the real name they had in the minds of others. If they had made errors, it was not too late for them to be corrected, as it would have a great bearing on their future life. He advised them above all other things to keep a good name and allow nothing to injure it.

After the diplomas were presented the class song written by Claude Krueck, was sung, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Flammer.

STATE TO PAY HALF OF COST PAVING STREET

OBERLIN, Jan. 25.—When Mayor Henry Smith and City Solicitor C. R. Summers were in Columbus, meeting with the State Highway Commissioner, it was agreed upon that the state pay half of the cost of paving South Main street from the edge of the village north to the railroad.

Residents all through northern Ohio will be glad to hear that this short strip will be cared for, as it is said to be the worst stretch of road between Cleveland and Toledo. This winter during the wet weather, it became almost impassable.

The estimated cost is about $22,000.

63 STUDENTS VOTE AGAINST WORLD LEAGUE

OBERLIN, Jan. 25.—Tuesday, the students of Oberlin College were given ballots and a printed slip explaining the Bok Peace plan. At Wednesday's chapel exercises the ballots were cast. Out of nearly twelve hundred students present, there were only seven hundred and forty who voted. Six hundred and seventy-seven were in favor. Sixty-three against the plan.

OBERLIN PERSONALS

OBERLIN, Jan. 25.—The end of the first semester examinations began in all the departments of Oberlin College today.

Chapel exercises will be held at 4:15 instead of at noon and at this time, beginning today and going through all next week, different conservative professors will give an organ recital.

To Explain Monday

Caraway's suggestion that the senate order cancellation probably will be retained insofar as it will express the disapprobation of the upper chamber to the lease. This is desired to add force to the order placing the senate squarely behind any move the president makes.

Walsh's plan would direct Mr. Coolidge to start immediate legal action to recover the reserves, using counsel not connected with the department of justice.

The fight for the resolution will be made Monday, Caraway announced. Walsh, too, was inclined to favor delay in action until the committee finishes its inquiry.

Department of justice operatives were investigating the circumstances surrounding Doheny's loan to Fall. It was said they worked under the direction of Rush Holland, assistant attorney general, assigned to the case by order of President Coolidge.

Ordered to Bed.

Fall's physician, Dr. John Wharton, issued the following official statement at 11:30 o'clock.

"Upon examination this morning I find that Secretary Fall has developed congestion in the chest and is suffering from a severe cold, contracted on his journey from New Orleans."

"He has a fever and I have ordered him to remain in bed for the time being."

The investigation of the leasing of the Teapot Dome and California oil leases was discussed by the cabinet today but no action was taken pending the completion of the senate inquiry.

Attorney General Daugherty, who is conducting an independent investigation of the legal phases of the transfers of the oil reserves, was not present at today's meeting, having left this morning to accompany Mrs. Daugherty to Miami, Fla.

COOLIDGE SEWS UP DELEGATES IN THIS STATE

COLUMBUS, Jan. 25.—Official endorsement was given at the statewide conference of Republican leaders here late yesterday of the following candidates for delegates-at-large for the Republican national convention, to be held at Cleveland, next June.

Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, U. S. Senators Willis and Fess, Charles L. Knight, Akron; William Cooper Proctor, Cincinnati; Mrs. David Todd, Youngstown, and Mrs. John Gordon Buttel, Columbus.

Approval of the candidates of these seven endorsed delegates-at-large, it is stated, was given by President Coolidge at a recent conference at Washington between the president, Ohio Republican leaders and managers of President Coolidge's campaign for the presidential nomination. All seven candidates, it was stated, will be pledged to vote for the nomination of President Coolidge.

It was indicated that Carmi A. Thompson, Cleveland, will be chosen as a candidate for national committeeman to succeed Rud. K. Hynicka, Cincinnati.

Alternates named are: Thomas S. Farrell, Cuyahoga county; Mrs. Wilma St. Clair Levan, Jefferson county; Edward Voltrath, Crawford county; Mrs. Harlie O. Brown, Greene county; Marshall Shelley, Lucas county; State Senator Geo. E. Kryder and Fred H. Patterson, Highland county.

That he was not a candidate for the seventh place on the delegates' slate was the declaration early in the conference of former Governor Harry L. Davis, Cleveland.

Senator J. F. Burke, Elyria, reiterated his announcement of candidacy for governor and asserted he "was in the race to stay." No statement was available for Roscoe C. McCullough, Attorney General Crabbe or Jas. A. White, former Ohio Anti-Saloon League superintendent, as to definite standing on their entering the gubernatorial race.

Rev. I. S. Webster, Toledo, declared the seventh delegate should be a negro, and announced an organized move by colored voters of Ohio to get representation at the national convention to be held in June, at Cleveland. He will call delegates from each county to attend a meeting in Columbus, Feb. 4, for the purpose of endorsing a colored alternate and delegate-at-large. For the latter, C. G. Trill, Toledo, has been spoken of favorably, announced Rev. Webster.

"STYLE HEADQUARTERS FOR MEN"

HENRIETTA SCHOOL NEWS

BY JOE A. MITTEN, PRINCIPAL

HENRIETTA, Jan. 25.—The Home Science Department has a life at Henrietta several days more pleasant by the introduction of the hot lunch. Girls in the high school under the direction of Miss Gould, head of the Department, prepare the food to serve to the pupils of all grades. Wafers, cocoa, creamed oyster stew, bean soup and table soup are being served at an average cost of three cents.

The Sophomore Class will give a three-act comedy "Welcome Home Jimmy" in the high school auditorium Saturday evening, Feb. 2, under the direction of Mrs. Kimmel of the English Department. Feature attractions will be furnished to help make the evening enjoyable. The popular price of 50c and 25c will be charged, proceeds to go toward equipment for the school. Arrangements are being made for an old fashioned community spelling to be held at Henrietta some time in the near future.

Several substantial improvements have been made by the school board during the past semester. A new Manual Training room has been built under the stage and the entire school yard has been drained. A part of the money for this improvement has been provided by the sale of the old school houses. The Bauman school was sold Jan. 12. The Windfall and Center schools are advertised for sale on the school lots on Feb. 23 at 1 p. m. and 2 p. m. respectively.

The world's longest single span telephone cable of maximum size is to be found near Rochester, N. Y. The span is 462 feet between towers and located over a deep gorge, about 150 feet above the Genesee river.

Production of 5,947,900 tons of coal in one week recently is believed to be the high record for any week in the history of the mines of Great Britain.

ANNA BACKS HER BACK

Anna Nilsson.

The argument about the ownership of the prettiest back in the movies isn't over it seems—not by several photos. The statement that the most pulchritudinous back more or less on view in the movies belonged to Corinne Griffith started something in Hollywood. First Wanda Lawley contested the election. Now Anna Nilsson steps forward with evidence calculated to be conclusive that she owns the prettiest back.

Develops Business from Back Room

Shop to $2,500,000 Corporation

A. W. ALTORFER

The rise of A. W. Altorfer from clerk in his father's hardware store to vice president and chief engineer of a $2,500,000 corporation is another example of millions made from discovering something the people want and supplying it efficiently.

Working about his father's store in Roanoke, Ill., he acquired skill in the handling of tools and the repair of machinery for farmers in that section. One day he went out to a farm to repair a gas engine used by the housewife to run a washing machine. It was a crude affair, but it suggested the need for power driven washing machines and clothes wringers.

Out of old wheels, shafting, and odds and ends of steel and iron his first power washer was built in the back room of the hardware store. The store's customers were interested, and the first year one hundred were made in that same back room and sold within a few miles of Roanoke. Later a small factory was built, with subsequent additions as the business grew.

When this small factory at Roanoke burned, the Altorfer Brothers incorporated for $250,000 and a large factory was built at Peoria, Ill. The volume of sales last year exceeded $5,000,000.

During the years of their advancement from workmen to millionaires, the two brothers have been a perfect exemplification of teamwork. The inventor has always been the inventor, adapter, and head of the manufacturing forces, while his brother, S. H. Altorfer has been the business head of the concern, whose careful management has been needed to carry the business forward.

1,101,863 DIED DURING 1923

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 24.—The Department of Commerce announced today that 1,101,863 deaths occurred in 1923 with in the continental United States, representing a death rate of 11.8 per 1,000 population as compared with the record low rate of 11.6 in 1921.

The death registration area (exclusive of the Territory of Hawaii) in 1922 comprised 37 states, the District of Columbia, and 13 cities in nonregistration states, with a total estimated population on July 1 of 92,211,643, or 85.3 per cent of the estimated population of the United States.

The increase in the rate from influenza and pneumonia (all forms) from 99.8 per 100,000 population in 1921 to 133.5 in 1922 more than accounts for the slight increase in the rate from all causes. Some of the other diseases for which the rates increased are cancer, diabetes, diseases of the heart, nephritis, cerebral hemorrhage, automobile accidents, accidental falls and accidental burns.

A marked decrease appears in the death rate from diphtheria and enteritis (under 2 years), which was 32.5 per 100,000 population in 1922 as compared with 41.9 in 1921. Some of the other diseases for which the rates decreased are tuberculosis (all forms), typhoid fever, puerperal septicemia, whooping cough, scarlet fever, accidental drowning and suicides.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Among those who whisper behind the hand, the insinuation has been made that the men who hold the watches here are of the opinion that Joe W. Mrs. J. H. Bell

"Never believe it when some one insists that you cannot do a thing," says Mrs. J. H. Bell, of Salina, Kansas. Mrs. Bell proved her own theory by stepping into her husband's shoes when he died and managing the Salina Water Works Co., the only woman in the United States to hold such a position.

Friends said she could not do it but she did and successfully.

"CONQUES OF SCOTLAND"

MARINETTE S MANIKIN AT RIALTO ON SUNDAY

A splendid programme has been arranged for "Sunday's concert at the Rialto theatre. Two features out of the ordinary, undeniably for appearance are first, Mariette S. Manikin, an astounding mechanical novelty. The most elaborate and greatest comedy manikin production in vaudeville. A riot for the children and old folks too. Second: The big Scotch and Irish Revue, entitled, "Conques of Scotland." A group of genuine Scotch and Irish singers, dancers and musicians. The act is beautifully staged and mounted.

Other acts on the bill are Lily Howard, a master artist on the xylophone, baby and Earle, in a novel laughing skill, entitled "Oh Doctor." The famous Heynoffs, in a novelty dancing and posing act, and last but not least, Jimmy Duffy, the Jolly Jester, a clever comedian, singer and dancer.

THEATRES

Grand—"The Meanest Man in the World," taken from George Cohan's great stage success. He buried his heart and soul one day, and his character changed. You would never think it of a nice looking young fellow like him, but he was so mad that even Cupid hid from him. But love played a trick with him, and an old well made a mint for him, and everything was lovely. The picture is full of humor, and Bert Lytell, Blanche Sweet, Bryant Washburn, and other stars make the most of it. Also the second series of pictures, "Around the World With the Speejaacks."

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How To Treat

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. They irritate the delicate stomach lining and cause a further increase in the acid. A few ounces of Bisphorated Magnesia taken after each meal, prevents the formation of excess acid or pain. Bisphorated Magnesia is a powder or tablet form—neither liquid or milk—is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Adv.

EES NO RAISE IN RAILROAD RATES

ger W. Babson Dis-usses Railroads For 1924; Says Rail Bonds
Are a Good Purchase

VELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Jan. 25.—A Supreme Court decision, a rapid increase in sales and rapid price advances in the railroad bonds during the two weeks has created quite much confusion regarding the railroad situation and the probable fortune of the individual bonds during 1924. Since we are affected by some phase of the road's activity—rates, purchasing policy, dividends or profits

—Roger W. Babson's analysis of the situation is of more than passing interest. In a summary of his investigation, issued today, he, lower rates but better net results for many of the railroads in 1924.

"The recent ruling by the Supreme Court on the Recapture Clause of the Transportation Act changes the Interstate Commerce Commission from a court of appeals to a board of directors," according to Mr. Babson. "The individual roads are no longer independent units but parts of one great transportation system. The rates set by the Commission are supposed to allow the roads to make 4 1/2%, which return is, however, not guaranteed. If the figure of 6% is exceeded, one half the balance goes to the Commission to be used as a revolving fund for aiding the weaker roads at 6% interest. At the same time, the Commission has legalized which change the whole aspect of the railroad situation.

"It is clear that there is little incentive for the strong road to make more than 5 1/2%. Let us see what is likely to happen.

"General business activity in 1924 promises to continue about normal.—The Babsonchart shows activity at 5% above normal—so there will be no great increase in the rates of the roads.

that we now have plenty of equipment and rolling stock to handle present volume. There is certainly no need for further increase along these lines.

"Railroad rates, both freight and passenger, should go no higher and a few revisions downward may be expected to the benefit of those affected. These developments will reduce gross income for the railroads but the loss will be offset to a considerable extent by the increased efficiency. The improved condition resulting from expenditures in 1923 will aid this. For the past 18 months the railroads have been spending at the rate of a billion dollars a year for repairs and equipment. Loss motion has been done away with to a large extent and their ratio of operating cost to gross income is better than this year's result.

"Having made the bulk of these necessary improvements, the roads will be relieved of a part of this expense in the future. It is probable that not less than half a billion, nor more than three quarters of a billion will be spent on such work this year. Practically all this expenditure will go into repairs in right-of-way, double tracking, extensions and permanent improvements rather than rolling stock.

PREACHER PENS COMMANDMENTS FOR FLAPPERETTES

The Rev. W. Carson Press

Ten commandments for girls have been suggested by the Rev. W. Carson Press, pastor of a Presbyterian church in Youngstown, O. This is the seventh: "Thou shalt not pick out a whale of a man and stick him for the sirloln and mush-rooms when thou shouldst not, but thou shalt be a good sport and thus enjoy many days of pleasant company."

Strengthens Big Roads

"Roads making more than the return allowed will be induced to do one of two things. They will either plow the surplus back into permanent improvements, such as better terminal facilities, or absorb weaker roads, wherever such merger will be of future advantage. Either way the bonds of the stronger roads are strengthened. In one case actual property is improved and tangible security increased. In the other, competitive advantage and increased future earning power is gained. Such developments together with the new theory of the Transportation Act argue well for the jun-

Vigorous Old Age

WHY separate youth and old age with a deep and ever-widening abyss?

The bloom of youth and the hardy, ruddy glow of Old Age—sixteen and sixty—should be separated only by the span of years and not by varying differences of physical wholesomeness.

Vigorous old age is within the grasp of all. S. S. S. brings that hale and hearty feeling back with a rush. Rich red blood is the greatest enemy of weakening, health undermining Old Age. S. S. S. builds Red Blood Cells. Rich, red blood coursing through your veins sweeps away impurities that retard the proper functioning of your system. Old Age—once a dreaded agony becomes a vigorous, enjoyable, care free time of life.

S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks—scientifically prepared and proportioned. Welcome Old Age when it comes. Be ready to withstand the attacks of diseases that follow in its wake. Meet Old Age with a hearty handshake. A handshake that speaks of well being—of a vigorous, clear thinking, red blooded constitution. S. S. S. is your best friend when Old Age is seen rounding the corner. Get a bottle and drive care and worry away. All leading drug stores carry it. The large size is the more economical.

S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again

for bonds of the sounder roads. But I do not see where either the new ruling or its anticipated effects will help rail bonds already held by investors.

The bankrupt road is still bankrupt under the new ruling. It is the solvent road in need of funds to finance current operations and permanent improvements that will be helped most.

Mr. Babson finds that recent strength in railroad bonds is reflecting heavy buying by European investors who want to put their money in something American for greater safety and who look upon our railroads as an ideal investment.

"Probable developments during 1924," concluded the statistician, "indicate slightly lower rates and better service to the public, possibly smaller but better distributed profits for the roads; and a stronger position for the vast majority of investors holding railroad bonds."

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Leopold Guy Francis Maynard, Lord Brooke, who has become 8th Earl of Warwick through succession to the title of his father, is said to have inherited many of the qualities that have served to make his brilliant mother one of the most widely known women in England. While a schoolboy at Eton, Lord Brooke attracted attention by running away, selling his personal belongings and buying a ticket for South Africa, with the object of taking part in the Boer war. He was forgiven by his parents, and received on arriving in Durban, a commission that attached him to the staff of one of the commanding officers. In the Great War he had further military experience as an aide-de-camp to the British commander-in-chief. While serving at the front he was seriously wounded and holds decorations from the British, French, Belgian, Russian and Japanese Governments.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.
